Today's News - December 6, 2005

WTC Memorial Foundation issues RFP for construction management/general contractor. — Meanwhile, the power struggle over Ground Zero continues. — In Beijing, a "gaggle" of starchitects inspire local talent to come up with their own mega-malls and "glitzy" office towers (never mind the demolition of parts of the Old City). — Winners named in U.K.'s £60,000 affordable housing competition, not at the expense of good design (unfortunately, no architects named). — Toronto finally gets its urban beach, complete with big yellow umbrellas; and the U.S. press is giddy over the city. — MacMillan makes his pick for Denver's new justice center (we'll find out if he's right in a few weeks). — In Johannesburg, a look at the bigger picture of the Beyers Naudé Square project that was much debated last week (see ANN 11/29/05). — Connecticut's "architectural anomaly...an appealing water plant." — Museum "wow's" them in Des Moines; next stop: Peoria. — Historic inn trades blue Formica for green technology. — Some hight, some flighty aspirations for Chicago's water towers. — Houses at Sagaponac: are they just a "different sort of suburban spraw?" — Tuming Torsos to tower in Vegas? — Cloepfil as museum-maker with charm and skill. — Hadid dazzles (and makes them cower). — A mega-merger: EDAW and AECOM.

To subscribe to the free daily newsletter click here

Request for Proposals (RFP): Construction Management/General Contractor Services for World Trade Center Memorial, Memorial Museum, and related facilities; deadline: January 10, 2006 (pdf)- WTC Memorial Foundation

Power Struggle Heats Up While Development Moves Slowly at Ground Zero -- Calatrava; Pei Cobb Freed Partners-Architectural Record

Economic warm-up for the Olympic main course...The gaggle of international architectural celebrities ...hired to create the new avant garde Beijing are inspiring...local architects...who have gone into creative over-drive...Large tracts of Beijing's old city have been reduced to rubble... — Foster; Koolhaas; Herzog and de Meuron; PTW- Financial Express (India)

Prescott warns drive to build more homes must not be at expense of good design: ...announced the successful bidders for a further four sites in his Design for Manufacture competition to construct quality homes for £60,000.- 24dash.com (UK)

It has taken time, but waterfront comes of age with urban beach: ...HtO has happily entered the realm of the possible. By Christopher Hume -- Janet Rosenberg; Claude Cormier- Toronto Star

So long, Plague City: U.S. media are buzzing about Toronto again, and this time it's all good -- Gehry; Kuwabara Payne Blumberg McKenna; Libeskind- Globe and Mail (Canada)

Who best to build upon our city? For justice center, a pick of architects. By Kyle MacMillan -- Foster and Partners/AR7/ HooverDesmondArchitects/HDR; Enrique Norten/TEN Arquitectos/RNL/Durrant; Hartman-Cox Architects; HOK; Valerio Dewalt Train Associates- Denver Post

Reserve Bank: work almost complete: Bought for a buck in 2002, the Gauteng government is spending R38-million to restore Matlotlo House to its 1930s splendour...part of the plan for the creation of a square adjoining the present Beyers Naude Square... -- Gordon Leith (1938); JC Cook & Cowen (1935); Floris Smith & Meyer Pienaar Architects (1996); Fanuel Motsepe [images]- City of Johannesburg

Connecticut Town Helps Create an Architectural Anomaly: An Appealing Water Plant...designed as a model of "sustainable" architecture... -- Steven Holl; Michael Van Valkenburgh [image]- New York Times

lowa's $62 million museum in Des Moines 'wowing' its visitors: Same architectural firm hired to design Peoria complex -- Zimmer Gunsul Frasca/ZGF; Brooks Bork Skiles Architecture; White Oak Associates- Peoria Journal Star

At Bear Mountain Inn [NY], a Plunge Into Environmentalism: A 1960's attempt to update the [90-year-old] building left blue Formica "all over the place"... — Hugh Hardy/H3 Hardy Collaboration [image]- New York Times

Tanks for the Memory: Mayor Daley jump-starts a Chicago architectural competition that seeks to locate the city's soul in its historic water tanks. A new exhibition displays 167 of the entries and examines the water tank's history and future possibilities in a high-tech age. By Lynn Becker [images, links]- Repeat (Chicago)

Mostly modern: Relatively restrained by Hamptons standards, the Houses at Sagaponac bring a different sort of suburban sprawl to the East End. By Justin Davidson — Meier; Hadid; Lindy Roy; Hariri & Hariri; Annabelle Selldorf; Henry Cobb; Shigeru Ban; Stan Allen; Eric Owen Moss [images]- NY Newsday

Calatrava Malmo tower planned for Las Vegas: ...two Turning Torsos...not yet confirmed...- Valencialife.net (Spain)

Museum Maker: With charm and skill, an Oregon architect climbs the peak of modern design...So, how did a little-known West Coast architect gamer such high-profile commissions in the first place? -- Brad Cloepfil/Allied Works Architecture [images]-Seattle Times

Designing Woman: Zaha Hadid has become the most famous female architect in the world. It has not been an easy path.- CBS Sunday Morning

AECOM Merges with EDAW- Business Wire

INSIGHT: Condos Breathe New Life into Old Offices: Historic office buildings are increasingly being reinvented as condominiums in CBDs (central business districts) across the country. By Mark Harbick, AIA- ArchNewsNow

Dec. '05 Build Business: Why Hire a Marketing Staff? No longer considered unethical and tacky, marketing has morphed into an essential tool for savvy A/E/C firms.
PALIO IIIIIS.
Competition winner: Coop Himmelh(l)aux Rusan Cinema Center, Ru	can South Koroa

Note: Pages will open in a new browser window.
External news links are not endorsed by ArchNewsNow.com.
Free registration may be required on some sites.
Some pages may expire after a few days.

Yesterday's News

© 2005 ArchNewsNow.com